

Rules of Play

Overview:

Pai Gow'd is an optional side bet Pai Gow Poker. Players win the bet if the dealer's five-card hand is less than a pair. The worse this hand is, the more the bet pays.

Dealing Procedures:

1. Players make the optional Pai Gow'd wager before the start of a hand. Players may bet within the posted minimums and maximums for this wager.
2. The dealer reconciles the Pai Gow'd wager as he settles each player's Pai Gow and Fortune wagers.
3. If the dealer's five-card hand is less than a pair, the Pai Gow'd wager wins. If the dealer's five-card hand is a pair or better, the Pai Gow'd bet loses.
